I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Adrian O'Herlihy, Sous Chef Cold Kitchen, for his excellent contribution in helping organize the start-up of this new airline catering facility for Saudi Arabian Airlines, here in Dammam, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Being one of the largest in-flight catering companies in the Middle East, the facility produces and provides variety of meals to various international and domestic airlines, including Royal and VVIP flights, and other special chartered flights. As such, Mr. O'Herlihy has portrayed effective and significant abilities in managing and assisting the Department towards achieving its goals and objectives. On several occasions, he, together with other chefs from DMM unit was sent to participate in various Airline Food Presentations within the Kingdom and I often received impressive constructive feedbacks of his culinary expertise and creativity. His other attributes are effective listening capabilities and sincere customer empathy. His attitude towards colleagues and staff was well liked and his personality contributed much to the work atmosphere. Any catering organization will be most fortunate to have the benefit of Mr. O'Herlihy's services and as such, he would be a credit to any company.

It just reminds me to say that I have been enjoying the presence and company of Mr. O'Herlihy in my Production Team and have no hesitation in recommending him for any future position. Given his character and integrity, his professionalism has been much appreciated.

I wish him all the best in his future endeavor.

Sincerely,

GRAHAM PERRY
